The Woman's club of Albuquerque held one of its most successful sessions Friday afternoon at the club, during the session the members of the department, Mrs. George P. Albright having the program in charge.

Ralph Waldo Emerson was the subject of the papers and discussions which were unusually well prepared and full of interest. Mrs. Webster read a very good paper on the life and works of the great poet and essayist which was followed by a poetical selection given by Mrs. D. A. Macpherson. Mrs. Ten Eyck and Mrs. Helen E. Bearap presented enjoyable readings from Emerson's essays after which a splendid review of the Emerson-Carleton papers was given by Mrs. Mayo.

Mrs. Carns and Mrs. Mayo furnished the music which was greatly enjoyed.

The members of the choir of St. John's Episcopal church were entertained Thursday evening at a turkey dinner in the Guild hall of the church. After a substantial and tempting repast had been discussed the rest of the evening was spent around a roaring log fire with speeches, story telling and songs. Those who participated in the musical part of the evening were Misses Margaret Jenks, Margaret Webster, and Mearns. Curtain, Bond and Stevenson.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. James H. Wroth, 506 West Copper avenue, was a charming hostess at the third of a series of "500" card parties. Mrs. Wroth was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. S. Burke and Mr. Alfred Frost. The first prize, a handsome leather writing pad was won by Mrs. Simon Stern and the consolation by Mrs. E. L. Medler. Topping refreshments were served and all present spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Fitch and Mr. Roy McDonald occurred Tuesday at the home of the bride's brother in Pittsburg, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald arrived from their short wedding journey last night and will be the guests of Mr. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. McDonald, 517 South Third street, until the completion of their home on Rama avenue.

The second Commercial club dance on Friday night was marked by that success which always attends the balls given by this popular organization. The charming feature was a cotillion led by Mrs. M. O. Chadbourne and Mr. Sam Pickard. Supper was served after which dancing continued until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Noa Ilfeld who have spent the summer touring Europe, left for home on Tuesday on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm and expect to reach New York within a few days. They expect, however, to spend a month in the east before returning to Albuquerque.

Mrs. Louis Ilfeld has returned from Santa Fe where she accompanied her guest, Miss Gertrude Bonheim, of Altoona, Pa., who after a two days' visit in Santa Fe, continued on to Las Vegas to be the guest of friends.

Mr. Stanley B. Wild, of Salida, Colorado, arrived in the city a week ago to accompany Mrs. Wild and baby home. Mrs. Wild has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gibson, 609 Coal ave.

Mrs. O. Bachechi and Mrs. M. Scott accompanied by their children returned Tuesday from a year's stay in Italy. Mrs. Bachechi and Mrs. Scott visited relatives and the children attended school.

A jolly party of young people surprised Mr. and Mrs. Bert Donnelly of 318 Back avenue resulted in an enjoyable evening. Appetizing refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. Harry Lee gave a family dinner Wednesday evening in her beautiful new home on North Twelfth street in honor of Judge W. D. Lee's seventy-fifth birthday. Seventeen covers were laid.

Mrs. J. B. Herndon and children have gone to Ennis, Texas, on an extended visit to relatives.

The Woman's club of Albuquerque will give a production by local talent in Elks' theater on the first of December, which will undoubtedly be one of the cleverest amateur performances ever seen here. The play to be put on is "The Broken Hearted Club and Sarah's Young Man," and a most promising cast of local talent has been secured by the ladies, the leading parts being taken by members of the club. Rehearsals under the direction of Mrs. W. Y. Walton, from now on will be frequent and thorough and the ladies expect to make the play one of the successes of the season.

Mrs. J. S. Black, of 219 West Coal avenue has returned home from a visit with friends in Trinidad.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. W. D. Bryan, 809 Park avenue.

Miss Anita Becker, of Belen, arrived last night to be the guest of Miss Jeanette Walton, 532 West Tijeras road, until after the Greer-Chadbourne ball.

Mrs. S. E. Newcomer gave the biennial reception to the members of the Tuesday literary club at her home, 205 North Walter street, Tuesday afternoon, October 31.

Miss Clara Olvera, of Santa Fe, spent a few days during the week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. V. Chavez, 209 North Seventh street.

Mrs. P. J. Cornish has issued invitations for a small card party next Saturday afternoon at her home, 123 North Walter street.

Mrs. Joseph Paine and daughter, Miss Lena Price, of Socorro, N. M., are the guests of Mrs. Leon B. Stern, 517 West Copper ave.

Dr. James H. Wroth has gone to Wilkesboro, Pa., to meet his mother, who will accompany him home to spend the winter.

Mrs. C. A. Radel, of Moston, Wis., is spending a few days with her friend, Mrs. J. A. Hubbs, 415 South Third street.

Mrs. J. S. Black, of 219 West Coal avenue has returned home from a visit with friends in Trinidad.

Mrs. T. S. Hubbell, 1023 West Railroad avenue, has cards out for a card party for next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Hubbs entertained at dinner Tuesday night in honor of her guest, Mrs. C. A. Radel, of Moston, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lyon, corner of Eighth and Copper, entertained last night for Mrs. C. A. Radel, of Moston, Michigan, who is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Hubbs.

Professor and Mrs. Asplund entertained on Tuesday evening at dinner. The paper on this occasion was read by Mr. Christy, the University architect. His subject was, "Boys," which provoked an interesting and profitable discussion.

Miss Flora Smith, of the University, gave a birthday party on Saturday evening to the people on the hill at the dormitory. Games, music and refreshments were the order, and a jolly time resulted.

President Tilt went to Washington last night to attend the great meeting of State university presidents of the United States, on November 13 and 14. On the program the university presidents have thirty-two important topics to consider, among which are the following: "What can be done by state universities for more positive ethical and religious culture and life?" "Why is college education not more effective in promoting good citizenship?" "The Assembly or Chapel in the University." "The Secret Society." "Direction and Control of University Athletics." "Co-Education in the State Universities." "Student Control in Discipline." "The Rockefeller Gift to General Education." "Rhodes Scholarships." "Pension System for Scholars in Europe and America." "College Dormitories." Great good should result from education from the discussions of such questions by the leading educators of our country.

Professor Angell gave a scholarly talk at assembly last Wednesday on the common subject "Water." His scientific statements regarding the change of water at boiling point, evaporation, steam, etc., were backed by some interesting experiments, most prominent of which was a gyser, which spouted the boiling water to the ceiling of the room.

The recent news of the death of Miss Isabel Milligan, a former teacher in the Albuquerque high school, was a sad surprise. She will be remembered by many former high school students as a lovable young woman and an excellent teacher.

Rhetoricals on Tuesday were occupied a short time, Mrs. Huggert and Mr. Crawford taking part. Much of the hour was consumed in football discussion. Mr. Tascher, the all-around man at the university distinguished himself as a money raiser. He held on until he got the students to be responsible for the sale of 100 tickets for next Saturday's game between the Santa Fe Indians and the Varsity.

Mr. Elwood Albright registered on Monday for the third year preparatory work.

The Society girls held a candy sale on Wednesday, and realized eight or ten dollars, which will go toward decorating their room.

The rhetorical program on Tuesday was very humorous throughout. It was participated in by Miss Bernice Murphy, Mr. Hayden, Miss Sarah Hall, Miss Schuster and others.

Miss Martha L. Taylor, the former instructor in English in the University, who is now Mrs. H. H. Theilman.

MODJESKA TO COME TO ALBUQUERQUE

FAMOUS ACTRESS TO APPEAR IN SHAKESPEARIAN ROLE ON FIRST OF MARCH.

Manager Matson, of Elks' theater, yesterday morning closed arrangements for the appearance of Madama Modjeska in Albuquerque on the first day of next March. The negotiations for the appearance of the famous actress in Elks' theater have been under way for some time, but the contract was not signed until yesterday.

Modjeska will tour the east and the winter months with a strong company in Shakespearean plays, and will finish her season in the west and on the Pacific coast. The engagement here will be the only one between Denver and the coast, and will be one of the big cards of the year. The play to be given here is not known as yet, as the famous actress is playing from a large repertoire.

SOLICITING COMMITTEE BEGINS WORK TOMORROW

PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATED CHARITIES USES REMAINING CHURCHES TO GET BUSY.

The meeting of the committees from the various Albuquerque churches appointed to solicit funds for the Associated Charities with President Rabbi Kaplan yesterday was only fairly well attended. The following churches were not represented: The Lead avenue Methodist, the Highland Methodist, the Catholic church, and the Presbyterian.

Those members of the committee who were present at the meeting will begin soliciting tomorrow morning. Rabbi Kaplan most recently requested that those churches who have not named solicitors to represent them should do so today and have the appointees call at his residence in the morning, get receipts and help in the work.

"It will only be a day's work if all the churches are represented and all start work together," said Rabbi Kaplan to the Journal last night. "Some people seem to think this soliciting will be a permanent task, or at least take a week or so. I think if we have a full committee to start with, the town can be easily canvassed in a day. Prompt action is urged upon all the churches, for if we are going to begin a vigorous winter's work for charity we should have funds to start upon at once."

If appointments are not made in the churches mentioned, the president suggests that volunteers take up the work. Those who are to solicit are requested to call at the president's home and secure receipts before starting out.

It is also desired that some one volunteer to take the place of Mrs. Hubbs appointed by the Episcopal church, as Mrs. Hubbs will be unable to accept the appointment.
